

I am writing to echo the sentiment of Sen. Olympia Snowe and others in urging the Commission to ensure that there is a full and informed public debate about the proposed changes to media ownership rules: I am concerned that the increasing concentration of ownership could adversely impact the transmission of information and am concerned that such a far-reaching ruling hasn't received enough attention and public debate to date.